EVALUATION FOR GENERAL SURGERY ROTATION

S=SATISFACTORY, U=UNSATISFACTORY

1. The resident is knowledgeable about the procedure and the medical history and complications.
   S/U

2. The resident comprehends clinical reasoning for the scheduled procedure.
   S/U

3. The resident will be able to identify general anatomy as it pertains to the procedure.
   S/U

4. The resident will be able to explain the principles of wound healing and demonstrate proper suturing technique.
   S/U

5. The resident will demonstrate adequate knowledge in the post-operative management of patients.
   S/U

Rotation Director Signature ______________________ Date _______________
Resident ______________ Date ______________
DPME Signature ______________________ Date ______________
Comments ______________________ ______________________________
_________________________________________________________________
_________________________________________________________________
Revised 4/2012