

ABC Hospital

EVALUATION FOR PODIATRIC MEDICINE ROTATION

S=SATISFACTORY/U=UNSATISFACTORY

1. Resident demonstrates appropriate competence in the evaluation and medical management of patients with a variety of lower extremity musculo-skeletal diseases, conditions and deformities in inpatient and outpatient settings.

S/U

2. Resident demonstrates competence in:
A. Performing problem focused history and physical exams.
B. Biomechanical evaluation
C. Formulating appropriate differential diagnoses and working diagnosis.

S/U

3. Resident demonstrates competence in:
A. Interpreting various diagnostic studies
B. Knowledge of indications, contraindications of treatment
C. Potential complications and appropriate follow up management.

S/U

4. Resident demonstrates competence in:
A. the evaluation and management of acute trauma cases
B. Podopediatric cases
C. Biomechanical cases including understanding the techniques and interpretations of gait evaluations of neurologic and pathomechanical disorders

S/U

5. Resident demonstrates ability to provide podiatric services in a variety of healthcare settings.

S/U

Rotation Director Signature _____ Date _____

Resident _____ Date _____

DPME Signature _____ Date _____

Comments _____

Revised 4/2012